Honorable Alan K. Campbell
Director
Office of Personnel Management
Washington, D.C. 20415

Dear Scotty:

At various times in the past the Agency has sought authorization for its current and former employees to be eligible for non-competitive appointment into the competitive service. We have pursued such action to gain an equal footing with other government agencies who have been granted such authority and to eliminate a serious obstacle to our employees establishing their eligibility for employment elsewhere in the Federal Government.

The last effort to secure this appointment entitlement was made by the Agency in 1971-72 and was aimed at obtaining an executive order similar to the one which gave the Foreign Service competitive appointment rights in 1965. Eventually, following a series of discussions between the Agency and the Civil Service Commission, the latter agreed to prepare and forward an executive order to the Office of Management and Budget for action. Unfortunately, that order was never issued.

We have recently concluded a comprehensive review of all aspects of our personnel system, which included a study by consultants of the National Academy of Public Administration. During the course of our review, it was concluded that we should again seek authority for Agency employees to be eligible for non-competitive appointment into the competitive service. I plan to ask the Agency's Director of Personnel Policy, Planning, and Management, Mr. Harry E. Fitzwater, to contact OPM to explore the best means to achieve this objective. His contact will be facilitated if you can designate the appropriate official to be called within your office.

In renewing this important effort, I would appreciate receiving your advice and support.

Sincerely,

/s/ Frank C. Carlucci

Harry, Harry

The DDCI has reviewed your memorandum on CIA employee non-competitive transfers and, rather than the DDCI discussing the matter with the Director of OMB, he suggests the following.

Prepare a memorandum from him to Scotty Campbell, Director of OPM, posing our case and the issues and justifying our position. Mention that the Director of Personnel of CIA will be meeting with the appropriate people in his agency. You should then pursue it. When you are blocked or hung up at the working level in OPM, then Frank will take it up with Scotty.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

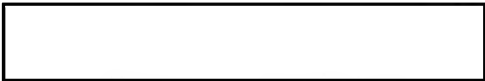

FROM: Harry E. Fitzwater
Director of Personnel
Policy, Planning, and Management

SUBJECT: CIA Employees Non-Competitive Transfers to Other Federal Agencies

1. At the Executive Committee Meeting on 18 December 1979 you tasked me to determine whether Agency personnel have the same civil service rights for non-competitive transfers as members of the Foreign Service. If it were found that they do not, you agreed to discuss the matter with the Director of the Office of Management and Budget.

2. The answer to the question as to Foreign Service officers' rights is set forth in Executive Order 11219 of 6 May 1965, attached. The State Department's Office of Personnel verifies that Foreign Service officers and employees do indeed have the rights and exercise them in accordance with the Executive Order. No such rights exist for Agency employees.

3. It is requested that you discuss this matter with the Director of the Office of Management and Budget.
